

SUPREME COURT CHAMBERS ATTORNEY

STAFF OF ASSOCIATE JUSTICE KRUGER

$7,041 - $13,797 per month

The California Supreme Court, in San Francisco, is accepting applications for a position as a Supreme Court Chambers Attorney to serve on the staff of Associate Justice Leondra R. Kruger. The position will become open on September 1, 2018. The level of appointment and starting salary will be commensurate with experience. Duties include assisting Justice Kruger in drafting memoranda and opinions in cases assigned to her and reviewing and critiquing memoranda and proposed opinions in cases assigned to other justices of the Supreme Court. These duties involve carefully and accurately reviewing appellate briefs, trial records, and other documents; thoroughly researching and analyzing existing law; and drafting clear and well-organized memoranda and opinions. A Supreme Court Chambers Attorney must be able to handle multiple assignments simultaneously and expeditiously and to work closely and cooperatively with the justice and other members of her staff, as well as with other members of the court's staff.

Minimum qualifications are active California bar membership and the equivalent of two years of post-bar legal experience. Candidates should have strong academic backgrounds, excellent writing and analytical skills, and the ability to work well with others. Experience as a judicial staff attorney, law clerk, or appellate practitioner, emphasizing legal writing and analysis, is highly desirable. Trial court litigation experience will also be considered.

Send your application to attorneyrecruitment.kruger@jud.ca.gov. Applications should include a resume, a cover letter describing the candidate's interest in and qualifications for the position, and a writing sample. Applications should be received by June 11, 2018.

For more detailed information, contact Beverly Gong at (415) 865-7102.

The Supreme Court of California is an Equal Opportunity Employer