

2022 ABAS Law Student Scholarship

The Asian/Pacific Bar Association of Sacramento (ABAS) is an association of attorneys, judges, law students, and friends who contribute to professional development, community service, public appointments, advocacy, and camaraderie. ABAS will award $500 to one or two eligible law student(s) who have demonstrated advocacy for and/or improving the Asian/Pacific Islander (API) community.

Applicants must be enrolled as a law student and in good standing at a law school located in Sacramento or Yolo County. The selected recipient(s) will be presented the scholarship at the Unity Bar Dinner held in Sacramento, CA, on November 10, 2022.

Your application must include (1) a copy of your current resume, (2) a 1-2-page statement describing your activities in the Asian/Pacific Islander communities, and (3) proof of enrollment in law school in Sacramento or Yolo County (e.g. unofficial transcript). Your application materials must include your name and contact information (i.e., phone number, mailing address, email), law school including year and division (i.e., day, evening), and anticipated degree (i.e., JD, LLM) and graduation date.

Deadline to apply: All completed applications including the attachments must be sent by email to abassacramento@gmail.com by 5:00 p.m., October 17, 2022. If you have any questions, please contact jinniferpitcher@gmail.com or mwang@wilneroreilly.com.

If you are selected as a recipient, ABAS will notify you by telephone and email. Thank you for your interest!
